

CFS Bureau and Advisory Group meetingDate: 20 July 2017Mexico Room, FAO, 09.30-12.30 and 14.00-17.00*FORUM ON WOMEN'S EMPOWERMENT IN THE CONTEXT OF FOOD SECURITY AND NUTRITION*Monday, 25 September 2017 – Rome, FAO, Red Room

9.30 – 9.50	Opening	Amira Gornass, CFS Chair Femi Oke, Moderator
9.50 – 10.30	Taking stock : Emerging challenges and persisting barriers to women's empowerment in the agriculture and agri-food sector	Keynote: Miriam Nobre – World March of Women, Coordinator Discussant: Bianca Pomeranzi – CEDAW expert
10.30– 12.30	Addressing gender gaps : Sharing lessons from concrete examples Followed by Q&A session	Panel discussion building on the background document* Four thematic areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Women's participation in decision-making, public policies, partnerships, leadership roles - Women's access to and control over land, natural resources, inputs, productive tools - Women's access to decent working conditions and adequate wages - Access and role of women with regards to markets, extension, advisory, financial services, social protection, education, training and other learning opportunities
12.30 – 14.00	Lunch break
14.00 – 15.30	Break-out group discussions : CFS role in advancing women's empowerment, women's rights and gender equality	3 Groups with 1 Facilitator and 1 Rapporteur for each group Key topics for discussion: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Are CFS policy outcomes adequately promoting women's empowerment, women's rights and gender quality as a pre-requisite for food security and nutrition? - Taking into account its mandate, what concrete steps can CFS take to further advance women's empowerment, women's rights and gender equality?
15.30 – 16.30	Presentation by break-out groups' Rapporteurs
16.30 – 17.00	Closure	CFS Chair's summary (for endorsement at CFS 44)